The exhibition is receiving wide publicity throughout this section. Every exhibitor has been furnished with a number of stickers, advertising the exhibition, which have been attached to sail tetters destined to southwestern points. The exhibition has also received space in a number of southwestern points. The committee in charge, as a result of this advertising, has every hope that a considerable number of out of town visitors will attend the exhibition.

BOY HAS LEG BROKEN WHEN

San Diego street, was run over by a wagon and suffered a broken leg Monday afternoon on Montana street, near the Lamar school.

The boy was coming from school. He ran out into the street as a wagon loaded with telephone poles was passing, started to climb onto the wagon and fell. One of the hind wheels passed over his legs, fracturing the right leg above the knee. He was taken to bis home and waited on by Dr. S. F. King, who stated Tuesday that the boy would not lose his leg. The driver of the wagon a Mexican, is said not to have stopped.

An automobile, driven by Lozis Cohen, collided with a wagon driven by Jesis Vallalva, at the corner of Magoffin and Cotton avenues Monday night. Vallalva was thrown from his wagon but escaped serious injury. The wagon was damaged considerably but the horse escaped unburt. Cohen was streamed, charged with reckless driving, and released on bond to appear in the corporation court this afternoon.
